

First Aid Training

HLTAID011 PROVIDE FIRST AID

 Designer Life
EMPLOYMENT • TRAINING • CAREERS

Provide First Aid certification is valuable for a wide range of individuals and professionals, anyone who wants to be prepared to respond to medical emergencies in any setting can benefit from this course.

During the course you will learn how respond in an emergency by developing your first aid skills to provide basic first aid response and life support.

Your face-to-face training will teach you the skills and knowledge required to provide a first aid response to a casualty in line with first aid guidelines determined by the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) and other Australian national peak clinical bodies.

The unit applies to all persons who may be required to provide a first aid response in a range of situations, including community and workplace settings.

A Statement of Attainment will be issued on successful completion of the course.

YOU WILL LEARN

- Recognise and assess an emergency situation
- Use available resources and equipment to make the casualty as comfortable as possible
- Provide first aid in accordance with established first aid principles
- Perform cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) in line with Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) guidelines
- Accurately convey incident details to emergency services
- Manage the casualty in a respectful manner
